REQUEST FOR REFUND UNDER 37 CFR 1.26

Sir:

During the course of prosecuting the above-identified application, Applicant filed a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) on August 2, 2006.

Applicant, through error and mistake, erred in calculating the fees required when filing an RCE, and authorized excess filing fee payments based on the total number of claims then pending in the application, as well as the $395.00 RCE fee, even though no additional claims were introduced at the time of filing of the RCE's.

These authorized charges were then debited from Applicant's Deposit Account 501407. It is requested that these excess charges, made by mistake, be refunded to Applicants Deposit Account 501407.

The details of the errors are as follows:

Applicant authorized (see attachment) the RCE filing charge of $ 395, as well as $ 200 for 8 additional claims over 20, even though the above claims had been previously paid for and no new claims were introduced with the filing of the RCE. These charges were debited on August 3, 2006 from Applicants Deposit Account 501407, and are highlighted in the attached August 2006 Deposit Account Statement. The charges for the excess claims fees (Fee Code 2202) were not required and paid by mistake.

A refund of $ 200 is deemed to be in order.

Applicant only became aware of the error in calculating RCE filing charges recently.

Applicant has not previously asked for a refund of these charges made in error.

Applicant has not been refunded the excess charges requested herein.

This request for refund is being made within two years of the charge against the Deposit Account.

This request for refund is clearly one that was paid by mistake, and in excess of that required and is contemplated by 37 CFR 1.26.

Favorable consideration of this Refund request is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,

Martin Moynihan,
Registration No. 40,338

Date: October 31, 2007
